

Greetings!

Welcome to Week Two of At Home Learning. I am very proud of all of you - you hit it out of the park last week. The level of engagement with your schoolwork, emailing me with questions, and participating in our daily chats, is impressive- thank you very much, you make my job easy and fun!

This week we will be working on the following:

Habit: 4 - Win-Win

Leadership word of the week: Inspire

Science: Work on presentations - carry over from last week

Social: Work on presentations - carry over from last week

ELA: Narrative Writing - picture prompt - posted on website, and available in the paper package at the office.

Math: Introduction to Triangles & Practice - pdfs of work on website and paper package available.

Please note I have made this week's Math and ELA work available in either a PDF version on our class website or paper - you can choose to do whichever version works for your family. The paper copy is ready and waiting at the office.

Please note that anything in blue and underlined is a link to our class webpage with all of the information you need. Also, you can access the class webpage needed by going to the subject you want, hovering over it and the first drop-down box is titled "Home Learning May 2021," everything you need is there with links included to helpful pages and videos.
